A Message From Our President

Our Celebration for Raising Capital at one of the largest Convention Centers in Nashville, TN.

If you follow the same method, you could raise enough capital to start your own business venture of any kind. My name is JR Watkins, President/Chairman of Bedzzz Inn Retail a new Mattress Store and Hotel concept opening in Nashville, TN. We have been searching for business capital for the last 3 years with no success. Finally, we had a chance to explore an unique opportunity of raising capital online. One day we were brain storming, and the idea hit us, and now we all are celebrating. All we know is that we are starting a business from money we raised online in 90 days.
